STRIKE IS SPREADING
INDUSTRY IS SUSPENDING

General Break-Down in Passenger Service Imminent As The "Insurgent" Move Continues.

Food Famine Faced in Many Big Centers.

More Embargoes are Placed by Nearly All Lines.

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, O., April 13.—Soft coal mines in Ohio were nearly all closed down today because of the railroad strike, and thousands of coal miners were thrown out of work.

A few mines in some scattered sections were reported still working, but all of the big mines were closed because of the inability of operators to get cars.

The Columbus, Delaware & Marion Traction Co., operating between Columbus and Marion, announced today it had taken off all its limited cars and reduced its service one-half because of the coal shortage caused by the railroad strike.

Unless coal can be obtained, it was intimated, further curtailment of service might be necessary.

Passenger train service through Columbus experienced only slight delay today as a result of coach switching crews leaving their work, assistant trainmasters and yardmasters working overtime to keep the trains running; but railroad officials predicted a breakdown of passenger service at any time.

Railroad yardmasters and trainmasters of the various railroads reported no improvement in the strike situation today, with none of the strikers returning to work, and movement of freight and express is at a standstill.

the state were appealing for coal and most of them declared that unless an immediate supply is forthcoming they will be forced to suspend operations.

Food supplies were becoming scarce in some sections of the state today and food dealers predicted a big rise in the cost of food supplies.

PRESIDENT CALLS MEETING OF CABINET TO DISCUSS RAIL STRIKE SITUATION

Growing Seriousness of "Unofficial" Strike Causes Concern Among The National Officials.

FIRST CABINET MEETING
SINCE SUMMER OF 1919.

Railroad Labor Board Members
Announced by President.

Department of Justice Asks
Railroads For List of Strikers

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, April 13.—Coincident with reports today of the growing seriousness of the railroad strike, President Wilson called a meeting of his cabinet for tomorrow to discuss "the general situation." It will be the first time Mr. Wilson has met with his cabinet since last August.

Attorney General Palmer had expected to make a decision today as to whether the government would intervene in the strike. Department of Justice officials refuse to say whether the cabinet meeting would cause postponement of the decision.

Simultaneously with the cabinet meeting the White House made public the names of the members of the new Railroad Labor Board. The nominations later were sent to the Senate where prompt action was looked for as government officials believe the creation of the board, which is to consider the railroad men's wage demands, will go a long way toward relieving the situation.

The Department of Justice today sent telegrams to the executive officials of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads asking that they supply the names of the men on strike on their lines, indicating the leaders in the movement.

The purpose of this move was not disclosed nor would officials say whether other lines affected by the strike would be asked for similar lists.

Reports from Department of Justice agents today said a new union was being formed among the strikers in Pittsburg and Chicago. The organization was identified as the "Railroad Workers' Union" with headquarters in Chicago. Department agents at Chicago advised that John Runau has been deposed as head of the Chicago Yardmen's Association and efforts were being made to learn the identity of the new officers, who, the reports said, were affiliated with the I. W. W.

SITUATION IMPROVED IN CHICAGO DISTRICT

Railroads Claim They Can Handle All Business Offered
Lines At Present Time.

Brotherhood Officials Think
Labor Board Can End The Strike.

100,000 Factory Workers Idle
In Detroit.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, April 13.—Appointment by President Wilson of the railroad labor board was viewed today by brotherhood officials as being a long step toward settlement of the rail strike.

The officials are now awaiting announcement of the government's attitude.

This, the 13th day of the unauthorized walkout, showed the deadlock continuing throughout all the districts west of Ohio with exception of the far northwest where the strikers have made some fresh gains.

In the Chicago district the strikers have made no gains for four days and while they deny any desertions from their ranks the railroads have each day increased the amount of traffic handled. The railroad managers announced today that the office workers and union strike breakers imported by the brotherhood are able to handle all traffic offered. Business is much below normal.

The east continues to be the strike center today. At Baltimore, Scranton, Philadelphia, Washington, Trenton and in Ohio the ranks of the strikers were increased over night.

At Detroit 100,000 factory employees were idle today through the shutdown of factories.

NEW YORK STILL IN STRIKE GRIP

(By Associated Press.)

New York, April 13.—New York still was in the grip of the outlay railway strike today and there were no indications of a general break here in the ranks of the strikers. Officials of the roads involved doubled efforts to maintain regular service and were cheered by announcements that military engineers, college students and citizens had volunteered to fill strikers' places. In many cases these volunteers were put to work today in handling suburban traffic in this vicinity.

MORE SERIOUS IN CLEVELAND

(By Associated Press.)

Cleveland, O., April 13.—The railroad strike situation became more serious today when 200 car repairs at 50 car inspectors of the New York Central lines failed to report for work. The freight tie-up here is complete.

REPORT SHOWS WHEAT OUTLOOK IS VERY POOR

Condition in State 68 Percent of Normal and Only 64 Percent in Fayette.

Late Reports Indicate The Damage Even More Extensive Than on April 1st.

Not since 1912 has the prospect of a wheat crop been so poor as at the present time, according to the state crop report, the condition on April 1st being about 68 percent of normal in the state, and only 64 percent in Fayette county. The decline in the state since December 1st is 22 percent.

A condition of 104 percent was reported on April 1 a year ago, with a final total estimated production of 53,480,000 bushels. The ten-year average for April 1 is 84 percent of normal. The condition this year is the lowest since 1916, when a condition of 66 percent was reported on April 1 and an average yield of 13½ bushels was harvested. In 1912 the condition on April 1 was 63 percent and the final average yield was 8 bushels.

While it is too early to determine the total extent of the damage from winter killing, the preliminary report indicates that at least 18 percent of the crop has been killed. Reports received from 13 county agents since the report was compiled indicate even more extensive loss from winter kill.

ing than the report shows. The loss as reported by the correspondents range from 11 per cent in the north-eastern counties to 24 per cent in the south west and south-central counties. A large portion of the abandoned wheat land will be sown to oats. Some will be left in order to save the clover. The shortage of labor will prevent the utilization of a considerable percentage of land for other crops.

The presence of Hessian fly is reported in nearly every county. Practically all of the early planted wheat was damaged and unless the weather conditions are such to retard the development of the fly and at the same time promote rapid growth of the wheat, the loss from this cause may equal or even exceed the loss from winter killing. The damage from fly is unusually severe in the two tiers of counties bordering Indiana.

The May first report will contain an estimate of the total acreage of wheat that will be plowed up and sown or planted to other crops.

Rye Condition
The condition of rye is reported as 82 percent, compared to a condition on December 1 of 95 percent, a decline of 13 percent.

NOVEL SOCIETY PLAY AT WONDERLAND

Distinct novelty characterizes Lew Cody's latest Robertson-Cole release, "The Beloved Cheater," which has its first showing at Wonderland Theater Tuesday matinee and evening and will have its last showing Thursday night.

It is a play of most unusual situations and is said to introduce fifty-seven varieties of love making, exemplified by the master hand of the "face of hearts" as Mr. Cody is designated—the heroine has radical ideas before she becomes engaged and the story hinges on how she is converted and this amazing tale brought to a surprising conclusion.

Famous screen beauties, gorgeous costumes and spectacular settings are features which add to the popularity of "The Beloved Cheater."

BASEBALL CHOSEN BY HIGH SCHOOL

For the first time in years baseball will be made a recognized sport in Washington High School this spring. It was decided upon by the Athletic Society of the student body Monday evening. A committee appointed to rule on the sport for the school preferred interscholastic baseball to track.

Games will be played between class teams two nights each week. It is expected that each class will put a formidable nine in the field.

The school was adverse to adopting baseball as a major sport because of the failure of the fans to support a high school team at the busy season of the year.

Practice will be started by Coach Moorehead as soon as the weather will permit.

SEASON WILL OPEN IF WEATHER IS FAIR

If the weather permits the baseball season will be opened in this city next Sunday by the Washington Athletics. The Springfield White Sox will be the first opponents at Sunnyside Park.

While no extensive preparations have been made for the game all players have been instructed to report at the park and the first game will be played unless the diamond is in unsatisfactory shape.

MIDDLEWEIGHT MEN MAKE REAL MATCH

Wrestling in this city will be in the form of one of the biggest matches in the state during the last six months is the opinion of experienced mat men who have sized up the Paul Bowser-Charles Metro match set for next Tuesday evening, April 20th.

Metro has the reputation of being the equal of Bowser as a middleweight and has been touring the east putting down everything in his class.

It is unusual that Bowser and Metro have never met in the ring and each is an unknown quantity to the other. Bowser has his same confidence that has won hundreds of matches while Metro is anxious to flop the middleweight king, and says he does not want a cent if he does not do so two out of three falls.

Creel's Turn Now

Mr. George Creel, one time chairman of the Committee on Public Information and as such a czar extraordinary is coming in for his reward at the hands of those whose activities were interfered with during the war period. Elaborate plans have been made for the proper lambasting of Creel and now, the preliminaries all having been attended to, the work may be said to be well under way.

The Joint Congressional Printing Committee, Senator Reed Smoot chairman, strikes the first blow and it is some blow, too. Legal proceedings against Creel, Roger W. Babson and others of his associates are recommended because of the alleged transfer of some government property to themselves individually for which the government obtained no valuable consideration.

It is not, however, with the quarrel between Creel and his associates and the senators and representatives in congress who were denied their "share" of publicity during Mr. Creel's regime, that the people are most concerned. That will all come to nothing, save a public exchange of insults and charges, in all probability.

The feature in the first broadside fired toward Mr. Creel and his fellows in the bureau of censors, is the recommended suspension of one hundred and eleven government publications and an assured saving of about one million tons of newsprint paper annually and the consequent lightening of the burdens of the carriers of mail.

Another interesting feature disclosed in the report is that during Mr. Creel's reign the public was presented with more than thirty million speeches of public officials all printed at a cost to the government of nearly half a million dollars.

That we are spared. Not alone the cost of it, but the speeches also.

Mr. Creel was perhaps the most unpopular of all our war-time officials and few friends among those who make men popular may be expected to rally to his assistance. They have "had theirs" at the hands of Mr. Creel and now he must take "his'n."

But the saving accomplished in dismantling the Creel establishment is encouraging.

A Wintry Night

The April sun, on Tuesday morning, came up out of the east as smilingly and cheerful as though nothing had happened during the evening and the night before. The birds and the flowers were a sad looking lot when the sun got home again on Tuesday morning.

Sinking behind the western horizon on Monday evening the same old sun left the world to the mercy of the north winds which brought rain, sleet, snow and ice. All night the storm roared like the midwinter and when old Sol came blandly forth on the "morning after" he looked upon a scene of glittering ice and snow.

An unusual and a discouraging scene spread over the country in every direction. A scene which the April sun made haste to alter.

The storm was a brief but a severe one, probably worse to hear and see than it was in the actual damage wrought.

Forgotten

There is much of a disquieting nature in recent developments in Europe, something ominous in its prophecy for the future. France seems to be left alone once more to face the German menace and Poland, that stricken nation, partitioned among the great powers and destroyed as a nation, but now restored, under the promise of protection in its national existence, is left alone in the first hours of its new life, to hold back from Europe the hordes of Bolsheviks. The great nations seem to have determined to go about their own selfish affairs in pursuit of trade and wealth and power without a thought of their menaced neighbor nations.

Europe seems to be unmindful of the serious consequences which would follow the overrunning of Poland by the Bolsheviks, letting loose the red flood.

Lenine knows the importance of breaking through to Europe by way of Poland and he will leave nothing undone to accomplish that purpose. Kolchak is dead, Denikin's forces are destroyed and Lenine is able now to concentrate his attack on Poland and he is doing it.

The great nations have forgotten the sacred principles underlying the Versailles treaty in the mad selfish scramble for gain and the result is one to make the strongest tremble.

Until men and nations forget selfishness and greed and remember the high principles which brought victory in the world war we can have no peace.

We are not doing the right thing, either as nations or individuals, and until we do the spectre of a stern accounting will menace the world.

It is amazing that we have so soon forgotten the lesson the war taught us.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE STARS

I thought to shape a sonnet to the stars;

So deep and wide their sway within my thought,

It seemed as if their majesty had taught

The choicest language with no sound that jars;

And as I pictured Jupiter and Mars, And fancied worlds and suns that men had sought

To bring to ken, it seemed their mention ought

To still the world in awe—but what debars

That I should sing to you a fitting strain,

Ye countless orbs, and with my numbers land?

What but the hush that speaks man's knowledge vain?

Before the vast unknown the soul is awed

To hear the psalmists' world like grand refrain;

The heavens declare the glory of their God!

STRIKE HINDERS COAL SHIPMENTS

When the present supply of coal is exhausted there will be no more available in this city until the railroad strike is settled. Some coal dealers are fairly well supplied with coal and there is little cause for worry. The situation is the same in all surrounding cities and towns and those dealers who found themselves supplied with coal when the strike came were extremely fortunate.

Almost all coal reaching this city is from the N. & W. and shipping has virtually stopped over this line of transit. Coal mines have been forced to close in different districts because of the strike of switchmen and have suspended operations until the differences have been settled, no cars being available.

While there was a possibility that some coal might come through to dealers in this city this week it was realized a few days ago that the present supply would be about the only source until the railroads again resume operations.

OBITUARY

William McClain, son of Alec and Kathryn McClain was born in Ross County, October 14, 1858 and departed this life April 2, 1920, aged 61 years, 5 months and 20 days.

On January 6, 1889 he was united in marriage with Elizabeth Kinch. To them three children were born one son Ernest, two daughters Lena and Dora. There is also an adopted son Kenneth who is serving in the U. S. Navy being stationed at San Domingo — who together with the widowed mother live to mourn the loss of a most kind and devoted husband and father.

He united with the Christian Church at New Holland in 1905 and has always remained a faithful member of that church.

In his death the community has lost a splendid citizen and a most obliging neighbor. Seldom has the vicinity been more shocked when on Friday eve it was learned that Wm. McClain had been killed by a runaway team, thus bringing so forcibly to the memory the scripture that says:—"That the Son of man knoweth not when the hour cometh."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation and heart thanks to neighbors and friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us in the death of our dear husband and father.

We wish to especially thank Mr. Elmer Klever for his efficient services and all those who sent the beautiful flowers; also Rev. Groves for his kind words of comfort.

COUNCIL HOLDS BRIEF SESSION MONDAY NIGHT

Committee On Claims, Headed By Rowe, Fails To Report Time Change Measure.

Street and Alley Paving Legislation Considered.

A short adjourned session of the city council was held Monday night for the purpose of taking action on certain street legislation and other matters. The resolution to proceed with paving of Dayton Ave. was taken up and read and re-read and passed, it being stated that the necessary thirty days which must elapse between the passage of the various measures, had not expired when the ordinance was passed last week. The legislation now conforms with the law regulating such organization.

A resolution for the paving of Cherry street, from North to Fayette street, was presented and passed by unanimous vote. The resolution includes paving the sidewalks.

A petition to pave an alley, extending from Fayette to North street, opposite the Sunnyside school house, was presented by Brownell. The petition asked for asphalt paving of the alley and pointed out the necessity of improving the alley. This was referred to the service committee.

A couple of citizens residing near the B. & O. stock pens asked for better drainage about their premises. This also was referred to the service committee.

The committee on claims headed by Rowe to whom was referred the petition containing names of some 500 citizens asking that the time be changed to conform with that of other cities, made no report.

Only a few citizens were present during the short session.
